PROFILE

Creative Strategist and Interactive Art Director with 12+ years leading award-winning campaigns across mobile, rich media, and connected TV. Currently driving omni-channel creative strategy for the North America market at InMobi — spanning interactive mobile formats, Glance CTV, and AI-accelerated production. Known for translating complex briefs into high-performing ad experiences, with a track record of RFP wins, measurable campaign outcomes, and pioneering formats that set regional benchmarks. Equally fluent in creative execution and strategic storytelling — from pitch deck to post-campaign report.

KEY ACHIEVEMENTS

- Mobex Awards 2024 (x2) – Best Use of Interactive Media & Best Mobile Campaign (Ponds / Unilever)
- MMA Awards 2021 & 2020 (x4) – Gold & Silver in New Tech & Innovation (KIA Sonet, L'Oreal Cannes) for pioneering virtual makeup try-ons and keyword voice integration units
- Directed 988 Suicide Campaign, currently submitted for major industry awards
- Led AI-driven workflows, reducing prototyping time by 40% and scaling design output across markets
- Built strategic decks with North America PMM team to win new business and promote InMobi Rich Media
- Partnered with product teams to design ads for Glance AI, a newly launched product

EXPERIENCE

Interactive Art Director – North America

InMobi Technology | Jan 2024 – Present | Bengaluru, India

- IC within a lean 3-person creative team for InMobi Labs NA, focused on creative strategy, format innovation, and campaign quality
- Lead interactive and CTV creative for NA — blending UX, brand narrative, and ad tech across mobile and large-screen environments
- Deliver RFP-winning pitches and GTMs for Fortune 500 brands including Fossil, PepsiCo, NFL, American Airlines, DraftKings, and Whirlpool
- Build strategic decks with PMM team to secure new business and position InMobi Rich Media as a key differentiator
